

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS

Day of the Dead

Dates: November 1st - November 2nd

Cultural significance: A tradition to remember and honor loved ones who have passed.

Historical context: Dia de los Muertos is a blend of Mesoamerican traditions, with ancient European customs. Traditions include honoring loved ones who have passed by using calaveras and marigold flowers known as cempazúchitl, building home altars called 'ofrendas' with the favorite foods and beverages of the loved ones to celebrate their lives in the evening of November 1st to the 2nd.
